

The Story of oh so adorable lovable little Sir Jonathan Creepy Mouse

Written and Illustrated by Ann Coffee

Jonathan Mouse was considered to be a very unusual mouse and many thought he was creepy because of his extra long tail. But when he follows the aroma of fresh baked cake, he goes on an adventure where he realizes that he is not so creepy after all. In fact, he is an oh so adorable lovable little creepy mouse and much, much more.

He practiced his cha-cha-cha on Eddie's head, and his Texas two-step on little Luisa's knees.

With a hip and a hop, he ended his dancing debut with a whispery ballet softly sending each child into dreamland.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR Ann Coffee is the author and illustrator of The Story of Sir Jonathan Creepy Mouse and is the "real" Grannie Annie who was inspired by her grandmother's stories.

She has three grandchildren that she wishes to pass down wonderful stories of her own childhood through illustrating and writing children's books.

She presently lives in California, but will soon be moving to Marble Falls, Texas, where she and her husband are building their forever home.
